Discussion Groups

The WoMen’s and Adult Reentry Center provide discussion groups designed to promote connection, growth, and empowerment. Student facilitators direct each identity-based group, while providing a space to discuss various issues and concerns.

Para Mujeres
Chicana/Latina Women’s Group
Second and Fourth Tuesdays, 5:00–6:00 PM
WakeMan Seminar Room, UH 205
A group designed to help Chicana/Latina students explore and share the Chicana/Latina culture, the stressors with family, and college life, as well as engage in current issues and concerns to enhance personal and professional development.

Pride Talk
Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender & Questioning
Wednesdays, 5:00–6:00 PM
WakeMan Seminar Room, UH 205
A discussion group for LGBTQ students and allies, Pride Talk is a “Safe Space” for students to express their thoughts and experiences. No issues or topics are taboo. We welcome LGBTQ students to bring their Allies who may be interested in better supporting the community. We cover everything from clothing to coming out via group discussion, watching current films, and hosting guest speakers.

Sistertalk
African American/Black Women’s Group
Wednesdays, 6:00–7:30 PM
WakeMan Seminar Room and Humanities 128
A group for sharing and discussing issues relevant to the African American community, it is a great place to engage in campus activities, explore academic concerns, and establish friendships while in college.

Taboo Talks
Thursdays, 5:00–6:00 PM
WakeMan Seminar Room, UH 205
Whether you are a self-proclaimed feminist or someone who is baffled by the very word, Taboo Talks provide a space to discuss gender politics and everything they touch. Join us in exploring new ways to think and talk about gender in current events, with significant others, and everything in between. All genders welcome.

The HUB

Second and Fourth Fridays, 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM
WakeMan Seminar Room, UH 205
A meeting place for women in our campus community to share perspectives and be empowered. Co-sponsored with International Programs, Phi Beta Delta, Study Abroad, the ALP, USA, the TESOL Club, and the WoMen’s and Adult Reentry Center.

Student Organizations

The WoMen’s and Adult Reentry Center provides networking and leadership opportunities by connecting students with organizations affiliated with the center. Student organizations develop intercultural understanding, personal growth, leadership, and serve as a medium for academic discourse.

AWARE
First Wednesday of the Month, 4:00–5:00 PM
WakeMan Seminar Room, UH 205
Adults Who Are Returning to Education is a new student organization for non–traditional students. This organization provides non–traditional students with the opportunity to build community through networking and becoming an effective and integral part of the CSUF community. AWARE will develop a welcoming environment and be advocates by providing resources and volunteer opportunities, and aiding the development of leadership skills.

Consent is Key
Thursdays, 1:00-2:00 PM
WakeMan Seminar Room, UH-205
Consent Is Key reduces sexual violence. Through education and advocacy, we define consent, raise awareness of sexual assault, promote bystander intervention, and challenge rape culture. We influence students and the community to become culturally competent members of society in the arena of sexual assault prevention.

Alpha Sigma Lambda
This Honor Society aims to recognize the special achievements of adults who accomplish academic excellence while facing competing interests of home and work. Alpha Sigma Lambda is dedicated to the advancement of scholarship and recognizes high scholastic achievement in an adult student's career. Through leadership born of effort, Alpha Sigma Lambda inspires its candidates to give of their strengths to their fellow students and communities through their academic achievements.
