"EXISTENCE" is an identity based art exhibition that will take place in recognition of Women’s History Month. This exhibition is open to showcase art that explores women and/or artists’ personal perceptions of what identity means to them. The theme may be broadly interpreted from a political, personal or formal context through a variety of media.

Exhibition Runs:
March 2 to March 26, 2015

Opening Reception:
Thursday, March 5, 2015, 5:00pm-9:00pm.

Venue:
California State University Fullerton
The Teaching Museum
(McCarthy Hall, 4th floor, room 424)

Juror:
Elizabeth Kneisley

Organizer:
WoMen’s and Adult Reentry Center
(University Hall, Room 205)

Eligibility:
Artists of all genders and at all career levels are invited to submit work for consideration

Questions to think about for art submissions:

• What does “identity” mean to you?
• What makes you who you are?
• How does your identity compare or contrast to the surrounding world?
• What does Women’s History Month mean to you?
• Do you identify as a feminist?
• What does feminism mean to you?

CALL FOR ENTRIES
Entry Deadline: February 19, 2015

Specifications:
• Work must be available for duration of exhibition
• Size limit 7’x10’
• Wall work must be ready to be hung
• Artist must supply any equipment for video/sound works
• No limit on the number of submissions

Guidelines for Submissions:
• All submission must be submitted as a JPEG file
• Name your JPEG Files:
  Artist’s First Name and Last Name_Title
  (ex: JoeSmith_BlueMorning)
• Submit all images sized approximately 4”x6” at 300 dpi resolution
• Contact information must be present in submission
  (ex: Joe Smith. Contact information:
  (324) 983-5843 / jsmith@gmail.com)
• ALONG WITH YOUR SUBMISSION, please write a short paragraph describing your work (medium, intentions, inspiration, concept, dimensions... etc.). This should be approximately 100 words.
• Submit work: to Elizabeth Kneisley at womenscenter@fullerton.edu

Delivery & Pick-Up:
February 20: All artists chosen to be in show will be contacted by email
February 24 (9am-1pm) or February 27 (9am-1pm):
  All selected artwork must be delivered to The Teaching Museum
March 27 (9am-3pm): All works must be picked up at The Teaching Museum

For more information please call the WoMen’s and Adult Reentry Center at (657) 278-3928 or email us at womenscenter@fullerton.edu