

THE EDUCATION ADVISORY BOARD IN BRIEF

THE LARGER ENDEAVOR

The Education Advisory Board is a division of The Advisory Board Company, based in Washington, DC. We provide best practices research to a membership of more than 2,700 of the world's leading hospitals, health systems, academic medical centers, and more recently universities and colleges. Conducting research across our membership and beyond, the Advisory Board completes 75 major studies on progressive management practices and more than 10,000 member-specific research briefs each year. In general, the research focuses on the best (and worst) demonstrated practices, helping member institutions benefit from one another's learning curves.

UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

Who We Serve

The Council is a membership of chief academic officers drawn from universities and colleges across the nation. In addition to the provosts and chancellors who are our main points of contact, the Council supports the extended leadership team in academic affairs and deans, department chairs, and administrative leaders across the institution.

How We Work

The Council is an extension of the academic affairs staff, dedicated to identifying and supporting implementation of the most innovative practices in higher education to help members elevate performance.
